

Course Title

Site Safety Awareness

Who Should Attend

This course is suited for people who are preparing to undertake the CSCS Health & Safety touch screen test or for any employee who is required to enhance their knowledge with Health & Safety in the scope of their workplace.

Course Content

- Health & Safety at Work Act 1974
- Construction (Design & Management) Regs 2007
- Management of Health and Safety at Work Regs 1999
- Construction (Head Protection) Regs 1989
- COSHH & Hazardous Substances in Construction
- Accident Prevention
- Reporting of Injuries, Diseases & Dangerous Occurrences Regs 1995
- Electricity on Construction Sites
- Personal Protective Equipment (Including Regs)
- Noise at Work
- Provision & Use of Work Equipment Regs 1998
- Manual & Mechanical Handling
- Excavations and Confined Spaces
- Work at Height
- Hand Arm Vibration (HAVS)
- Fire Prevention
- Health & Safety (Signs and Signals) Regs 1996
- Lifting Operations & Lifting Equipment Regs 1998
- First Aid at Work
- Theoretical Assessment

Course Outcome

Delegates will be more aware of the potential hazards that their work place can have. This course will be tailored around the delegates working environment.

Course Durations

This is either a half day or full day course for a maximum of 10 people per course.